4) Monthly Management and Rounds Report

Attached are detailed reports. Have 195 memberships representing 214 members.

This is 51 more members from same time last year. Financials show golf performing $70,656 favorable to budget for April.

5) Committee Reports

- a. Greens – Rodger/Jeff Good condition, healed well from aeration.
- b. Policy – Orry/John Policy handbook has consequences for no shows at scheduled tee times. Should be enforced as memberships increase? Ball washer was damaged, may have been from last tournament but can not prove.
- c. Handicaps – Dean/Rodger Scores continue to be recorded. Letter sent out worked.
- d. Tournaments – Jeff/Dean Need to have 5 scores posted. Require for member/guest. Harder for guests, Kyle will adjust as needed. Katrina will have food prices for member/guest.
- e. Scholarships – Jeff/John Interviews last weekend. Had 7 very good applicants. Three regular scholarships, one Denny, and one Carlson.
- f. Memberships – John/Orry continue to have new members join.
- g. Communication – Don/Dean many new members, have phone call to welcome and be aware of tournament and activities.

6) Golf Professionals Report

Continue to have phone calls about memberships. New tee box signs ordered. Signs are side mounted. Will be located by ball washers and garbage cans. Sponsors pay $400 to cover cost. Sign on 8th tee box will have phone number to order food.

7) Golf Superintendents Report

Cleared brush at black tee box on 17 and install turf mats. Continue to spray fertilizer and weed control. Have new flags, red, white and blue. Solid colors better.

8) Old Business

a. Weathervane articles – 6/1 – John, 7/1- Orry, 8/1- Mark/Don

b. Ryder Cup points/dinner/costs

Since we have 20 players and dinner costs about $40 each, best way is to have players not pay for dinner. This would be reward of making Ryder Cup and would promo cost.

9) New Business

a. 2023 non-member rounds by source attached.

b. Letters to new members with vouchers attached.

10) Misc. None

11) Adjournment - Motion to adjourn Jeff J. and 2nd by Dean
